

MRS. PANKHURST OFF TO SWITZERLAND; DAUGHTERS CLASH

Christabel Withholds Funds From Sylvia Because She Acts With Labor Party.

LONDON, Dec. 21.—Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the militant suffragette leader, left London yesterday for Paris on the way to Switzerland to recuperate from her weakness brought about by a "hunger and thirst strike" in Holloway Jail, from which she was released on Dec. 17. Her departure was not accompanied by any of the usual demonstrations.

Reports were in circulation today that relations were strained between Mrs. Sylvia Pankhurst and Mrs. Christabel Pankhurst, the two daughters of the militant leader, in consequence of Mrs. Sylvia's determination to concentrate her campaign in the East End of London and in efforts to co-operate with the members of the Labor party.

Mrs. Christabel disapproves of this scheme, and is said to be withholding funds.

One man was killed, several firemen were seriously injured and many residents had narrow escapes in a fire early today which gutted the two upper floors of Park Mansions, in Kingsbridge, where Mrs. Pankhurst formerly lived.

This Home-Made Cough Syrup Will Surprise You.

Cure Little, but There Is Nothing Greater at Any Price. Fully Guaranteed.

Here is a home-made remedy that takes hold of a cough almost instantly, and will usually conquer an ordinary cough in 24 hours. This recipe makes a pint—enough for a whole family.

Mix one pint of granulated sugar with 1/4 pint of warm water, and stir 5 minutes. Put 3 1/2 ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle, and add the Sugar Syrup. This keeps perfectly and has a pleasant taste—children like it.

You probably know the medical value of pine in treating bronchial asthma, bronchitis, spasmodic croup and whooping cough. Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in gualacal and other natural healing pine elements. Other preparations will not work in this combination.

The prompt results from this inexpensive remedy have made friends for it in thousands of homes in the United States and Canada, which explains why the plan has been imitated often, but never successfully.

A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

most fashionable apartment houses in the West End, and the blaze drove the occupants to the street in their night clothes. Albert Edwards, a house employee, was suffocated. The authorities said the origin of the fire was a mystery.

OUELTFENHAM, Dec. 21.—"Miss Red" and "Miss Black," two members of a militant suffragette "arson squad" who had eluded the police on many occasions, were brought up at the police court here today on a charge of setting fire yesterday to Alston House, a large mansion on the outskirts of this city.

The two women, who have been rechristened for police court purposes, as they had refused to reveal their names, were seen in the neighborhood of the burned building, and when arrested their stockings were found to be soaked with kerosene which had overflowed from the cans they had emptied on the woodwork of the mansion. They appeared in the prisoners' enclosure barefooted.

The accused were remanded.

YOUTHFUL SLAYER HELD FOR KILLING TORMENTOR

Though No Longer a Juvenile, Charles Minner Goes to Children's Society.

On the advice of Coroner Shogut, a Coroner's Jury held sixteen-year-old Charles Minner of No. 63 St. Ann's avenue, the Bronx, for the Children's Society today, although the boy is no longer a juvenile in the eyes of the law. The youngster stabbed twenty-year-old Charles Schugman of No. 63 St. Ann's avenue on Dec. 7 and the elder lad died two days later. Young Minner was then not sixteen, his birthday falling on Dec. 18 last, but because the attack was committed while he was under age the Coroner sent him to the Children's Society.

"Then I stabbed him to defend myself," said the youngster. The Coroner Shogut said he felt that the boy had acted in self defense, but something should be done to a youngster who carried a knife with a four-inch blade and did not hesitate to use it.

MOTHERS-IN-LAW UPHELD.

Only Caused One Divorce in My Court in 17 Years, Judge Says.

BOSTON, Dec. 21.—Judge Charles H. Long of Springfield, whose decisions in divorce cases attracted wide attention, says: "If a mother-in-law offends, ask her to leave you; if she won't go, put her out, but be gentle in so doing."

Although Judge Long advises such strenuous action in the case of interference by a mother-in-law, he says that in seventeen years' experience in the divorce court he has had only one case when relatives or a mother-in-law were at the bottom of the trouble between husband and wife.

WHY EVE WEPT. (From the Galveston News.) "I heard you crying in your sleep, pet," said Adam, as he buttoned his wife's waist before they went down to breakfast. "Yes, dear," said Eve, smiling. "I dreamed the cook had made a salad out of my new gumpie."

CUNARD LINE FORCED TO GO TO TRIAL IN SUIT OF IMMIGRANT GIRL

Taken From Steerage, She Says, and Locked Up on False Charge.

The Cunard Steamship Company must file its answer and go on with the trial of a suit brought against it in Nassau County by Miss Catherine O'Rourke, an Irish immigrant, in which she demands $100,000 damages for maltreatment when she was a steerage passenger on the Campania from Queensdown in 1911. The case already had been hanging fire for two years in the Federal court, where the steamship company recently got a dismissal for lack of jurisdiction.

Miss O'Rourke then filed a petition in the Supreme Court in Nassau County through her attorney, Arthur T. O'Leary, of 18 Park Row, in which she recites that while a passenger in the steerage of the Campania a dead infant was found hidden there and she was seized by the ship's officers and publicly accused of being the child's mother.

Then, says Miss O'Rourke, she was imprisoned in a small cabin in the ship's hospital and subjected to six separate examinations by the ship's physician, Robert Bruce.

After she had been imprisoned for two days, Miss O'Rourke says, the women steerage passengers discovered the real mother of the child, but even then she was not released for a day. Miss O'Rourke says she was so frightened by threats of deportation by the ship's officers that she did not dare to complain to the immigration authorities.

The steamship company's attorneys asked the court to order Miss O'Rourke to make her complaint more definite, but the court denied the motion and appeal was taken. Today the company moved to have its time for answering extended until ten days after a decision was obtained on this appeal. This was granted.

AMERICAN WOMAN HELD IN LONDON FOR UNPAID HOTEL BILL

Arrested Under Name of Watson, She Is Said to Be Widow of Late U. S. Consul Read.

LONDON, Dec. 21.—A woman giving the name of Mrs. Hannah Gordon Watson and who said she was the widow of a former American Consul at Tientsin, China, who died a year ago and was a relative of John W. Foster, former Secretary of State, was charged today at Bow Street Police Court with obtaining by false pretenses credit to the amount of $40 from a London hotel. The testimony showed that the woman went to the hotel last week with four children and brought with her two valises. When she was asked to pay her current bill she let ostensibly to cash a draft. Later in the day she sent a man for the two valises, saying she wished to have her initials put on them. She was arrested on Saturday and today appeared to the American Embassy for assistance.

J. Arthur Barratt, an American barrister practicing in London, appeared in behalf of the Embassy and explained to the Magistrate that the accused said she was expecting a remittance from America. The Magistrate thereupon ordered the defendant to be remanded for a week and admitted her to bail on a surety of $500. The prisoner, who comes from New Hampshire, has resided in Europe for some time.

It was learned later that Watson was an assumed name, and that the defendant was the widow of the late Sheridan Pitt Read of New York, who was formerly American Consul at Tientsin, and who died of heart disease in London on Oct. 31, 1912.

RUPPERT'S KNICKERBOCKER
The Beer That Satisfies

Christmas Cheer and Ruppert's Beer

DURING MEDIEVAL TIMES in old Germany and Bavaria, when Christianity was being implanted into the hearts and minds of men, and convents were the centres of education where nearly all lines of art and industry were taught, lager beer was a celebrated article. In those days, the annual recurrence of Christmas was religiously celebrated, and as monks were brewmasters, lager beer was the chief beverage drunk at most all their festivities, marriage ceremonies and at court of kings. More than a thousand years have passed since then, and still lager beer is their celebrated Christmas and national drink.

As was the beer of "Ye Olden Times" to the Germans, so is Ruppert's Knickerbocker to the Americans of to-day. All advanced art and skill in making and improving the quality of beer, during all these hundreds of years, and the pick and choice of materials and modern machinery are in evidence at the Jacob Ruppert Brewery.
